

Newsletter – October 2017

Dear Parents/Carers,

Welcome back to Creative Stars and what a fast-paced start to the new academic year we have had. Over the last month, we have settled many children into nursery life. This will continue throughout October as we believe that staggering the children makes the transition into nursery much smoother.

Staffing Update

Many of you are already aware that Yeter is off on her holidays travelling through India! Please check out a section of her blog for more information. When returning, Yeter will lead the floor as Manager.

We have a new member of staff called Naomi who will be taking on the role of Deputy Floor Manager. She will manage the Baby Stars but will also work closely with the Shining Stars.

We continue to have Lesley (my mum) who is a qualified Nursery Nurse and Amber (my sister) currently studying Midwifery at University, who cover staff absences and staff training.

I will now be able to focus on the expansion of Creative Stars. I will still teach during the mornings and focus on business administration in the afternoons.

Yeter's Blog

Namaste from India! Hope your all well, missing the team and all my stars.

I arrived in Delhi and spent around 10 days there, enjoying the bazaars and visiting beautiful historical buildings. Getting use to the hectic pace of Delhi life wasn't as hard as I thought it would be. The food here is incredibly tasty! I took a day trip to Agra to visit the majestic Taj Mahal, worth the wait.

I'm currently in Rishikesh, the city of yoga. I have been improving my yoga for the last two weeks. It has been hard work! I'm off to Jaipur today, new adventures await! I'll keep you all posted on my travels.

Love Yeter

Thank You!

Thank you to all parents and carers for your continued support over the summer. It was a hard few months and your kind words and care have been much appreciated. Many thanks for your understanding and patience whilst we have been grieving – it means a lot!
